The town of Bouillon is famous throughout the world for its history, its castle and Godfrey of Bouillon.

Today you can visit the fortified castle. There you will find the oldest and most interesting remains of feudalism in Belgium, its present aspect being mainly due to work carried out between the 16th century and the Dutch period.

The building is listed as major Wallonie heritage. On the way up from the road by the Austrian Tower (1551) you get a wonderful view of the whole fortification, the town and the meanders of the river Semois.

Included in the price of the visit :

- ✓ the educational exhibition about the art of falconry (all year round) and flight demonstrations with birds of prey from March 1st to November 11th included at 11.30, 14.00, 15.30. Additionally at 17.00 during weekends and public holidays as from 01/04 until 30/09, as well as every day in July and August.
