Bastogne War Museum, this unique Memorial Centre, focusing on the Second World War seen through the spectacular lens of the Battle of the Bulge, offers an exciting tour featuring three immersive reconstructions.

An instructive and moving experience, the itinerary offers various decors, testimonials, multimedia installations and films, allowing visitors to live the experience as if they were there...

You will meet four individuals who will guide you through your visit: an American corporal of the 101st airborne division; a German lieutenant of the 26th Volksgrenadier Division; a young teacher from Bastogne school and one of her pupils, aged 13.

Younger visitors will love the specially-designed interactive terminals dotted throughout the tour. Our guides also host tours for schoolchildren and youngsters.

The visit features major highlights evoking both personal stories and history in general.

The Battle of the Bulge Monument (Mardasson Memorial), located a stone's throw from the museum, is a foremost memorial site featuring a crypt decorated by one of France's most acclaimed 20th-century artists, Fernand Léger.

The Bastogne War Museum is now Luxembourg's leading tourist attraction.

> Discover the immersive experience "Generations45" and accompany two soldiers in the post-war years.

> Visit the remnants of the Bois Jacques battlefield through an augmented reality mobile application.

> New immersive experience: Bastogne War Rooms: Visit General McAuliffe's historical cellar, US headquarter during the Battle of the Bulge!

Car park, cafeteria, terrace.

Reduced-mobility access.

You can reach the Bastogne War Museum via the (TEC) bus line 6 - terminus.
