A commemorative site, the tiny village of Brûly-de-Pesche was chosen to welcome Hitler's headquarters on May 22nd, 1940.

Today, visitors can experience what the villagers lived during the Occupation through mock-ups, films and original objects, together with interactive tablets.

The fully-modernized layout offers a fascinating insight into the inner circle and private life of the Führer during his stay in Brûly-de-Pesche.

Information panels are also available in the centre and park of Brûly-de-Pesche.
