On December 17th, 1944, the Kampfgruppe Peiper massacred 84 American prisoners. The Baugnez 44 Museum is now located on this historic site as a permanent tribute to the infamous massacre at Malmedy.

The Battle of the Ardennes centre, opened in 2007, is considered as one of the finest museums of its kind and features all of the major battle events, including 16 stage reconstructions and 120 showcases, together with several unique pieces relating to the massacre.

Visitors can also enjoy a previously-unpublished 25-minute film, together with two multimedia shows to plunge you into the winter of 1944...

The highest-quality collection in Europe! A unique experience not to be missed!
