

VIROIN ECOMUSEUM

Plunge into the heart of rural life!

The Écomusée du Viroin presents the main traditional trades once practised in the village communities of Entre-Sambre-et-Meuse.

Starting from a reconstructed village square, discover the workshops of several typical rural craftsmen: cooper, shoemaker, baker, washerwomen, etc., as well as old farm machinery outdoors.

There's also a mechanised clog-maker's workshop dating from the early 20th century. Clog-making demonstration or guided tour of the permanent exhibition by prior arrangement, and clog-making machine demonstration on the last Sunday of the month at 15.30 (except events).

You can also visit the temporary exhibition!

Every 1st Sunday of the month: free admission to the museum.

Guided tours of the permanent and temporary exhibitions for groups.

Tailor-made educational activities for groups (2.5 to 18 years old): baker's workshop, leather-working workshop, forge, rope, basket-making, washerwoman, etc.

5 to € 8 per person. Groups can be invoiced.

Gift shop including selection of books.
