Fancy a dive into the past in the town of Spa?

Head to the "Musée de la Ville d'Eaux", the ancient home of Queen Marie-Henriette and wife of Léopold II.

The ground floor of the museum retraces the story of this famous spa town and features authentic documents, rare objects and videos illustrating the astonishing evolution of the cradle of modern balneology, now referred to as the "Pearl of the Ardennes" and home to the acclaimed "Café de l'Europe". The brand-new layout also includes "jolités" – ancient objects made of wood from the town of Spa.

Spa Horse Museum

Discover the exceptional equestrian heritage of Spa at Queen Marie-Henriette's ancient stables! The exhibition features numerous objects, including harnesses, a farrier's forge and many more items associated with this astonishing animal we think we know off by heart!

Children's games available.
