Experience Europe is the free and permanent exhibition of the European Commission.

Located in Brussels on the Schuman Roundabout, in the heart of the European Quarter, the centre is open 7 days a week, designed for visitors to learn more about the European Union.

It offers a fun and interactive environment where visitors can discover the work, priorities, and main policies of the European Commission, as well as the values of the European Union, including activities available for young people, inviting them to discuss and exchange ideas about Europe.
