Set in the heart of Liège, in the magnificent former monastery of the Liege Friars Minor, the Wallonia Folk Museum offers a delightful insight into everyday life in Wallonia from the 19th century to current day.

From human and social history to economy, literature, crafts and popular celebrations and beliefs, the life of the people of Wallonia from bygone to current day will hold no secrets for you!

The Museum also features an excellent documentation centre and puppet theatre, and hosts tours and activities for every age and taste, together with regular temporary exhibitions. Reduced mobility access.

It also takes an active part in many events, such as the local Heritage Days, Wallonia Festival and "Night of the Hills" celebration.
