Discover the Hidden Wonders of the Hotton Caves!

Immerse yourself in a fascinating underground world by visiting the Grottes de Hotton, one of Belgium's most beautiful natural wonders. Located in the heart of the Ourthe valley, these World Heritage-listed caves invite you on a unique adventure beneath the surface of the Earth.

Explore a world thousands of years old

As soon as you enter, marvel at the majestic galleries sculpted by thousands of years of natural erosion. Each step brings you closer to spectacular formations such as delicate stalactites, imposing stalagmites and even mysterious columns and draperies. It's a real journey through time, immersing you in the geological history of our planet.

A feast for the eyes

The Hotton Caves are a veritable festival of colour and light, where crystallised limestone and natural deposits are revealed in breathtaking shades. Thanks to carefully staged lighting, each room becomes a living tableau, accentuating the natural beauty of this underground world.

An experience for all the family

Whether you're a nature lover, a geology enthusiast or simply looking for an unusual family outing, the Grottes de Hotton will captivate you. Your children will be fascinated by the local legends, and the more curious will love discovering the discreet but intriguing fauna that inhabit these depths, such as bats and small blind crustaceans.

Adventure and safety

Explore in complete safety with our passionate guides, who will reveal all the secrets of this thousand-year-old cave. The visit is perfectly accessible to all, even the youngest explorers, with adapted itineraries and a lift to make it easier to return to the surface.

So why wait? Don't miss out on this unforgettable experience. The Hotton Caves promise an extraordinary journey of mystery, natural beauty and wonder. Book your visit now and let yourself be transported into an underground universe where every nook and cranny tells a story thousands of years old.

The tour lasts around an hour and is led by a multilingual guide. Dogs are not allowed.

Gardens, playground, terrace, refreshment bar, snacks, souvenirs, car and coach parking.
