Meet the wildlife of the Ardennes in a natural forest setting just 2 km from Saint-Hubert town centre!

The Saint-Hubert Wildlife Park welcomes families all year round. According to the season, you may well come across young wild boars and fawns frolicking with their mothers during your stroll.

The Park is criss-crossed with footpaths, including a trail that takes you among animals roaming in semi-liberty.

Visitors of all ages can enjoy learning all about the local fauna, flora and folklore at the learning centre complete with interactive games. The centre also offers a fascinating insight into Saint-Hubert, the capital of Hunting, Nature and the Hunting Horn!

Good to know:

- The park is not accessible to buggies, please bring your baby carrier
- Animals are not admitted with the exception of guide dogs
- The park is only partially open in September and October (rutting season).
