It is certainly in the "Pays des Collines" that the strange has chosen to live.

In a storybook setting you will find the surprising "Maison du Pays des Collines" (House of the Hilly Country).

As well as an information centre, which covers all the region, this building houses an amazing animated tour.

Through the centuries the landscape changes before your very eyes. Accompanied by the pedlar you discover the area, its craftsmen and its artists.

Go to meet the witches and devils ... In the distance a cackle calls you to continue on your way !

The stories and legends of the entire world invite you to a devils circle... the Asian dragon, the north-European mermaid, the African crocodile and the Ellezelles witches tumble you into the world of witchcraft. A last phase will initiate you into the legends of the region and black-magic, thanks to magic potions and formulas.

At the exit there is a shop selling local produce so that you can take home with you a piece of this wonderful countryside!
